MESSAGE		Rev. Richard Routh
	“A Life of Reconciliation”
SCRIPTURE		2 Corinthians 5:14-21 ESV
14 For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; 15 and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

16 From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. 17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. 18 All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; 19 that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. 20 Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. 21 For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

References made to Psalm 34 “Taste and See That the Lord Is Good”

Consider These Benefits of Being a New Creation in Christ (v17):

Christ’s love compels us to please God rather than ourselves. (v15)

We look beyond the outward appearance of a person to what is inside. (v16)

We are not who we once were. (v17b)

We have been given a new nature and partake in the righteousness of God. (v21)
